

Duke of Edinburgh's International Award & Outdoor Adventure Teacher Training- Expedition Skills

For educators and teachers organising and supervising DofE and outdoor adventure trips.

- Map-reading and navigation skills
- Planning and preparation
- Choosing and checking gear
- Campcraft basics
- Risk and safety management
- Incident management
- Group activities

Weekend Schedule

(N.B. Subject to change according to weather & conditions)

Day 1

- Meet in Benediktbeuern & hike to Tutzing Hütte (3hrs)
- Welcome & introduction
- Dinner
- Gear & packing workshop

Day 2

- An introduction to map work
- Hike including risk management themes
- Incident management workshop
- Group activities
- Dinner
- Evening talk

Day 3

- Hike including incident scenario role-play
- Group activities
- Weekend de-brief
- Departure (approx. 16:00)

Location: Tutzing Hütte, Bavarian Pre-Alps

Meeting point: Benediktbeuern train station

Time: TBC – Via email 2 weeks before

Getting there: Train from Munich Hbf (1hr) or drive A9 – Exit 9 Sindelsdorf (50mins)

Accommodation details

Rooms: 4-6 bed rooms, shared bathrooms

Half-board: Breakfast & 3-course dinner – please let us know any dietary requirements in advance.

N.B. Lunch, snacks, drinks not included but available for purchase at the hut. (Cash only)

Cost

- Single booking €445/ person
- School multiple bookings (4+) €395/ person