“The path is the goal”

As always our goal is to appreciate all the little things along our routes- scenery, culture and the magic of the great outdoors. We will take time out along our journey to rest and sample local delicacies from local farms along our route.

Activity level requirements

Previous hiking experience, steady footing & a head for heights, fitness for walking 5- 7 hours with up to 1000m ascent per day.

Accommodation

Accommodation along this route has been selected for its character, traditional atmosphere and scenic location. We mainly are in private guest houses or hotels – sometimes in shared dorms or 3-4 bed rooms. Some with wellness facilities. Bedding and towels are provided everywhere saving us space and weight in our rucksacks.
